

2019 Tall Pine Tales in Haliburton and Muskoka

Haliburton Event on Wed. July 17, at 5:45 p.m. (poster to follow)

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

This is a collaborative set of guidelines by Cottage Country Writers.

Guidelines for writers submitting works:

- Works submitted should be current or a piece of writing that has not been read at any Tall Pine Tales event.
- On your submission, include your name, title of the work, phone number and email.
- Submit a biography (60 words max.) and a photo for the program guide.
- Send submissions to district event coordinators.
  - For the Haliburton*, Pauline Johnson at pauline.l.johnson@sympatico.ca
  - For the Baysville or Bracebridge*, Wendie Donabie at wdd550@gmail.com
- A brief introduction (max. 150 words) should accompany excerpts from long stories or novels so the audience has a clear understanding of the characters and setting (time, place and situation). Indicate if you would like to read the introduction or would like the M.C. to read it. The time taken to present this may be in addition to your 7 minutes reading time. The committee may edit introductions for conciseness or clarity.
- Works read must be no longer than 7 minutes. Writers should read their work aloud at home and check the timing, before submitting. Work that is judged too long by the organizing committee will be returned for revision.
- Practising reading allows you to give a polished presentation. Presentations are video recorded for future use and promotion.
- If you need to revise something after making a submission, re-send the entire file (biography, photo, introductory material, contact information and your work). Re-name your file, adding “revision” to the subject line.

HUMOUR AND ENTERTAINMENT VALUE ARE ALWAYS APPRECIATED BY AUDIENCES.

HALIBURTON SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Friday, June 14. Thank you for your submissions.
